1. The Fund may be subject to investment, interest rate, credit, volatility and liquidity, downgrading, valuation, credit rating, counterparty, sovereign debt, zero coupon and currency risks which may not be suitable for all investors. Investors may be subject to substantial losses in the extreme market situation.
2. The Fund's investment may be concentrated in US dollars instruments and the value of the Fund may be more volatile.
3. Investors should note that investment in the Fund is not the same as placing funds on deposit with a bank or deposit-taking company and that the Managers have no obligation to redeem units at the offer price.

Investment Objectives¹

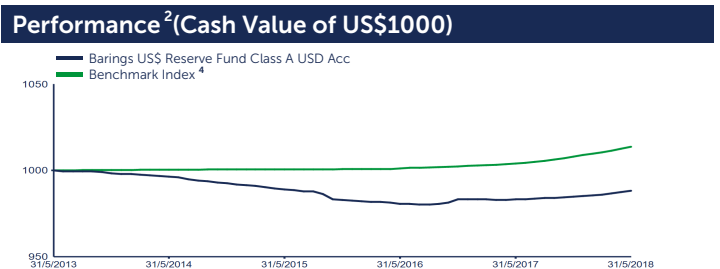

The objective of the Fund is to provide as high an overall rate of return as is consistent with the preservation of capital and liquidity. There is no guarantee of repayment of capital. In seeking to maximise the return for each such Class, the Investment Manager will invest in highly liquid instruments denominated in US dollars. The policy of the Investment Manager of the Fund is to invest in deposits and in negotiable fixed and floating rate securities. Fixed rate securities which may be purchased include certificates of deposit, short term bonds, notes, government securities and other money market instruments provided they are redeemable or repayable within twelve months. Floating rate securities are purchased provided the coupon attaching is due to be refixed within six months of the date of purchase.
