- The Fund invests in the quoted equity securities of companies or REITs (or their equivalents) listed or traded on a regulated market, which engaged in real estate businesses.
- Investments involve varying degree of investment risks (e.g. liquidity, market, economic, political, regulatory, taxation, financial, interest rate, hedging and currency risks). In extreme market conditions, you may lose your entire investment.
- Investments in financial derivatives instruments ("FDIs") (such as futures, swaps, options, forward rate notes, and forward foreign exchange contracts) involve specific risks (e.g. counterparty, liquidity, leverage, volatility and valuation risk). The Fund may use FDIs for hedging and/or efficient portfolio management purposes.
- The Fund's investments are concentrated in property sector and may subject to higher concentration risk.
- The Fund may invest in Eurozone (in particular Portugal, Italy, Ireland, Greece and Spain) securities and may suffer from Eurozone sovereign debt crisis risk.
- In respect of distribution shares classes of the Fund, the directors may at its discretion pay dividend out of gross income and net realised/unrealised capital gains while charging/ paying all or part of the fees and expenses to the capital, resulting in an increase in distributable income for the payment of dividends and therefore, the fund may effectively pay dividend out of capital. This amounts to a return or withdrawal of part of an investor's original investment or from any capital gains attributable to that original investment, and may result in an immediate reduction of the fund's net asset value per share.
- The investment decision is yours. If you are in any doubt about the contents of this document, you should seek independent professional financial advice.
- Investors should not only base on this document alone to make investment decisions and should read the offering documents including the risk factors for further details.

About the fund

The investment objective of the Global Property Equities Fund is to seek long term capital appreciation by investing in the quoted equity securities of companies or Real Estate Investment Trusts (or equivalents) listed or traded on a regulated market which derive the main part of their revenue from the ownership, management and/or development of real estate, throughout the world.
