市場回顧

■ 標普500總回報淨指數月內上升0.99%。業績季度應可反映美國企業於新政府班子入主白宮後2017年第一季的增長情況。敘利亞局勢緊張，令美俄關係進一步惡化，成為最備受注視的地緣政治事件。法國大選緩解市場憂慮，股市於月底略為回升。

基金分配及持倉

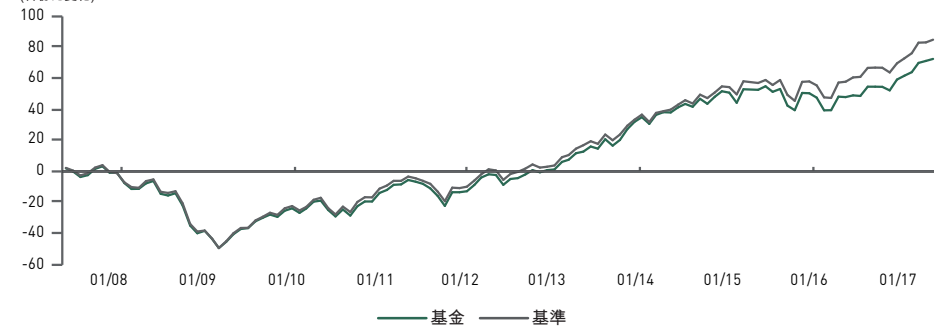

■ 基金月內表現落後基準指數。
 ■ 資訊科技及能源股成為主要回報來源。資訊科技股方面，DXC Technology及Alphabet表現領先。非必需消費品股成為削弱回報主因，當中Harley-Davidson及美泰兒 (Mattel) 表現最差。由於選股理想，成熟周期型股票成為表現最佳的增長型股票，而成熟防守型股票則表現最差。

市場展望

■ 整體經濟數據繼續上揚，新增職位及失業率理想，反映美國接近全民就業。初步醫保法案未獲通過，投資者對新任政府推行稅務改革的預期下降。儘管未來政策變動存在不明朗因素，經濟狀況應可支持聯儲局繼續落實政策正常化。

MARKET REVIEW

■ The S&P 500 Total Return Net Index returned 0.99% in April. The earnings season should give some indication as to what kind of growth US companies have experienced over the first quarter of 2017, which ushered in a new administration in the White House. Most significant on the geopolitical front was the tense situation in Syria, further straining US-Russian relations. A slight rally later in the month was related to French election market relief.

FUND ATTRIBUTION & POSITIONING

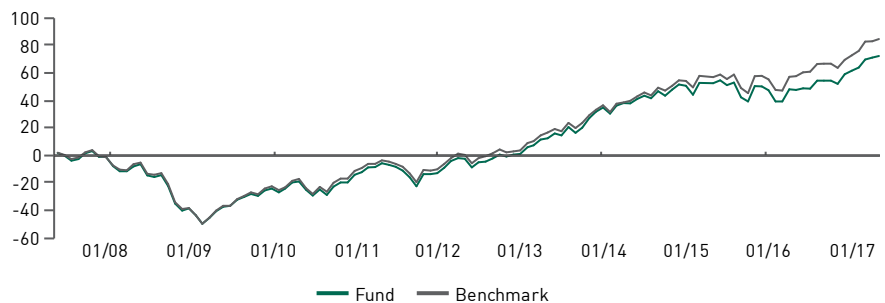

■ The fund underperformed its benchmark index during April.
 ■ The strongest contributors to relative fund performance were in the information technology (IT) and energy sectors. Within the IT sector, some standout performers included DXC Technology and Alphabet. The largest detracting sector from relative fund performance was the consumer discretionary sector with Harley-Davidson and Mattel leading the underperformance. The Mature Cyclical categorization was the top performing growth category, exhibiting strong stock selection, while the Mature Defensive companies were the worst performing.

MARKET OUTLOOK

■ Economic data overall continues to trend to the upside as jobs growth and unemployment numbers have been healthy, indicating the US is nearing full employment. Investor expectations of any progress on the new administration's tax reform have been tempered following the failure to pass the initial health care reform bill. Despite the uncertainty of policy changes moving forward, economic conditions seem to support continued Federal Reserve policy normalization.
